DESCRIPTION

The urbanization Roca Llista is centrally located on the west coast of Ibiza, where the residence is located, surrounded by the green mountain landscape. The house has a spectacular sea view and the golf course is a stone's throw away. Both Santa Eularia and Ibiza Town are less than fifteen minutes away by car.

The house

The well-maintained house is ready to enter and is finished to a high standard. In addition, the residence has a lot of natural light, thanks to the glass sliding door, which ingeniously connects the terrace with the inside. The residence has partly a wooden floor and partly a concrete cast floor, which creates a modern contrast. Many natural elements were used. The open kitchen is designed with wooden details and equipped with a cooking island, where one side serves as a bar. The cooking area is fully equipped and has high quality built-in appliances and an American fridge. The kitchen continues into the living room and ends in the patio. Here it is the wall of natural stone that catches the attention and continues to the terrace. Here you can find the private pool with stunning sea views.

The bedrooms

The lovely house has two bedrooms, of which the master bedroom with built-in wardrobe has an en-suite bathroom. This is finished with the same wood that was used for the kitchen. Furthermore, the house has another bedroom with built-in closet and a separate bathroom.
