DESCRIPTION

This property is composed of two small Fincas that have been joined and reformed with modern touches. It is situated in a very quiet area between the beaches of Es Cavallet and Las Salinas.

In one of the parts of the house there is the kitchen, the dining room and a bedroom with bathroom en-suite, in the other part of the house we have the other four bedrooms, three of them in the ground floor, one with bathroom en-suite and the other two share a bathroom and in the upper floor we find the main bedroom with its bathroom en-suite and a spacious dressing room.

We also have several porches where we can find an outdoor dining room in addition to different garden areas and a barbecue. From the roof terrace you can enjoy wonderful views of the Salinas pools up to Formentera. It also has a generous pool that, even though it is communal, is very quiet as it is only shared with 5 other neighbors. The parking area can accommodate up to 4 cars.
