DESCRIPTION

This is a recently completed property set in the beautiful, tranquil north of Ibiza. Each of the three individual villas has its own living areas and kitchen facilities, and each property offers two double bedrooms. There's a spacious pool area with plenty of outside entertaining space for the party to come together. This part of the island is renowned for its tranquillity and peace, and this property set in beautiful gardens surrounded by ancient olive and fruit trees is no exception. The serene gardens are unfailingly relaxing, inviting the eye to enjoy the spellbinding Ibicencan landscape that follows all the way over the fields and countryside until it reaches the Mediterranean and the island of Formentera.
